Law Office of the Cook County Public Defender

FY2014 Budget Presentation

Mission

Protect the rights, liberties, and dignity of each person whose case has been entrusted to the Public Defender's Office. Provide the finest legal representation by providing clients with attorneys who have adequate time and resources to address the unique facts of their cases.

Budget and staffing

Cook County Public Defender – FY2014 budget highlights

FY2014 Budget Presentation

Highlights

- Increased staffing in the Bond Court Reconsideration Unit in the interest of reducing the jail population.
- Actively involved in Veterans Court, Elder Court, Other Specialty Courts, Adult Redeploy Program, Mitigation Project, Forensic Sciences Project, Wrongful Convictions Project and resentencing hearings for juvenile clients who received life without parole sentences in light of the recent U.S. Supreme court case, Miller vs. Alabama.
- Designed, built and implemented the “Court Clerk Data Download” project to facilitate inputting case data from the Clerk’s system into the Public Defender’s Legal Edge case management system.
- Monitored the number of defendants’ motions for continuances requested after the State has tendered all discovery and answered ready for trial in Class 4 felony drug cases to ensure that clients with non-complex cases are represented adequately and efficiently.
- Increased the use of technology in courtroom advocacy by creating a Trial Support Division which is designed to assist and train staff in the use of courtroom presentation hardware and software.
